

2018 Junior Field Hunter Championships

Finals to be Hosted by Old Dominion Hounds Orlean, VA • November 10th-11th

Five Local Hunts Hosting Qualifying Meets

Several hunts in the Northern & Central Virginia areas will be hosting qualifying meets this autumn (see the schedule below).

We all say, “Juniors are the future of our sport.” The JNAFHC program, now in its 15th year, is a great way to put that into meaningful action. Juniors—from those just off the leadline to college-bound teens—have the chance to hunt with different clubs, make new friends, see hound work in action, and develop an appreciation for the importance of land conservation.

The finals have been held in different parts of the country, which can pose a challenge for some who qualify but don’t have the resources to travel to a distant location. This year’s finals are right in our neighborhood, hosted by Old Dominion Hounds in their wonderful Orlean, VA, country.

We encourage everyone to support and promote this valuable program. Sign up your Juniors and come have some fun!
